Who We Are

In today's fragmented world of Left / Right and of Conservative / Liberal, Consistent Life emerges as a voice of unity. We witness to the human rights of all...the unborn, those on death row, sick or infirmed, global neighbors and victims of war, of poverty, and of racism.

How does Consistent Life promote its mission of connectedness?

- Publishing endorsement ads in leading publications by nationally known leaders.
- Hosting workshops and speaking at conferences on the consistent ethic of life.
- Circulating Consistent Life News announcing activities of our member organizations
- Sponsoring Amicus Briefs before the Supreme Court showcasing the unity of peace, justice and life activists.
- Witnessing to the interconnectedness of human life at rallies and demonstrations
- Maintaining The Institute for Integrated Social Analysis, the research arm of Consistent Life.
