Imagine a world...

Consistent Life 25th Anniversary Conference
March 9 – 11, 2012
Chevy Chase, Maryland (1 mile from Washington, DC)

Imagine a world where people:

- Resolve international and civil conflict with honest dialogue
- Respect each new human life
- Dignify those with disabilities or those nearing the end of their natural lives
- Provide basic needs of life to the underfed and inadequately sheltered
- Honor those of different ethnic and cultural backgrounds
- Regard the lives of serious offenders as worthy

Consistent Life is a network of 200 groups and individuals who have been imagining such a world for 25 years. We invite you to attend our 25th Anniversary Conference where you can:

- meet a diverse group of national/international Consistent Life Ethic (CLE) supporters for mutual support and encouragement
- consider ways to forward the CLE message
- hear speakers that embody the CLE message
- actively engage CLE in your current group or member organization

FEATURED SPEAKERS AND PANELISTS

Catherine Meeks, Professor, Socio-Cultural Studies, Wesleyan College. Author of many books including Standing on Their Shoulders: A Celebration of the Wisdom of African American Women.

Sheldon Schafer, candidate on the Green Party ticket from Illinois. He is an outspoken advocate for the consistent life ethic.

Aimee Bedoy, recent graduate of Carnegie Mellon University. While there, Ms. Bedoy served as President of the campus’ Life Matters Club.

Rachel Muha, founder, the Brian Muha Memorial Foundation, helping inner city kids in Columbus, Ohio. Ms. Muha is a recipient of the Jefferson Award for Public Service.

invited: Nick Neal, Kristen Day, John Roth and others.*

CONFERENCE PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Looking back - a historical retrospective of Consistent Life Ethic
- One view - integrating faith and secular views with the CLE
- Future foundations - youth education including “CL kids” outreach
- Stand and be heard - nourishing CLE in today’s political climate
- Beyond today - CLE activities for the next generation
- Take action - constituency gatherings in the community

Consistent Life also welcomes those who wish to give a public witness action on CLE
